

Topics 3000: Terms and Conditions of Employment

Original Adopted Date: September 17, 2025

Status: Approved

District employment contracts set forth several terms and conditions of employment for individual employees. District policies and procedures also communicate important terms and conditions of employment. Employees are responsible for reviewing and following approved policies and procedures as contained in the District Policies and Procedures Manual. For emphasis, select terms and conditions of employment policies and procedures are included below.
